

LIST OF ARTICLES AND LETTERS BY SIR ROY HARROD

This list of articles and letters by Sir Roy Harrod consists, in the main, of those published in daily or weekly periodicals. A bibliography of his books, contributions to books, and articles and reviews published in monthly or quarterly journals, may be found in 'Induction, Growth and Trade. Essays in Honour of Sir Roy Harrod', edited by W. A. Eltis, M.FG. Scott and J.N. Wolfe, Oxford University Press, 1970. Sir Roy also wrote monthly memoranda on the current economic situation for Philips and Drew from 1955 onwards. These are available up to 1967 in sets of three bound volumes in the Libraries of Oxford (Institute of Economics and Statistics), Yale and the University of Pennsylvania.

The list was prepared with Sir Roy Harrod.

M.FG.Scott

March 1971

TWO REVIEWS

Two early reviews, omitted in error from 'Induction, Growth and Trade', were:

Free Trade and Peace in the Nineteenth Century,
by Helen Bosanquet, Economic Journal,
June 1925.

Banking, by Walter Leaf, Economic Journal,
March 1927.

ARTICLES AND LETTERS

(in order of publication)

'Monetary policy' (letter), The Economist, 4 June 1932 (see also 18 June 1932).

+ Trade 'Restoration of prices; fresh money for spending' (this letter was written by Sir Roy Harrod and privately printed by him for circulation, in order to collect signatures. As published, it was signed by 42 economists, including Keynes), The Times, 5 July 1932.

'The dilemma in the economy; how to restore demand; a case for limited reflation' (article described as 'from a correspondent', and referring to another by Arthur Salter on 'Reflation' which had appeared on 3 June 1932), The Times, 4 November 1932.

'More money in circulation' (letter written by Sir Roy Harrod and signed by 37 economists), The Times, 10 March 1933.

'Britain's lead in currency policy', Daily Telegraph,
31 March 1933. //

'Trade of the world; British policy of expansion' (letter),
The Times, 21 April 1933.

'Banking and trade recession' (letter), The Economist,
9 July 1938.

'Meeting on trade recession; the case for monetary reflation',
The Times, 11 August 1938 (see also 17, 26 August and 14 September 1938).

'Expanding the credit base' (letter), The Economist,
10 September 1938.

'Credit, growth and trade', The Financial Times,
12 September 1938.

'Appeal for Liberal-Labour Agreement at Oxford' (this open letter initiated the idea that the Liberal and Labour candidates for the Oxford by-election should withdraw in favour of an independent anti-Munich candidate, which they subsequently did. The independent candidate, A. D. Lindsay, did not get in, but the idea was taken up at Bridgewater shortly afterwards, where the independent anti-Munich candidate, Vernon Bartlett, was victorious), The Oxford Mail, 10 October 1938.

"Expenditure on defence. 'Good out of evil'. A remedy for the trade decline" (letter), The Times, 14 October 1938.
(The date of this letter is incorrectly stated to be 22 February 1939 in 'Induction, Growth and Trade').

'Sir Stafford Cripps's campaign. The clear duty of Labour
Associations' (letter), The Manchester Guardian,
19 January 1939.

'Finance by War. Effect on gilt-edged prices. Supplementary measures' (letter), The Times, 22 February 1939.

'National economic policy' (anonymous), The Times, 2 and 3 March 1943.

'Plan for employment', The Times, 7-8 February 1946.

'Britain fears our economic course', New York Times,
1 December 1946.

Monthly articles in Soundings, 1947-50.

'"Horriying" Story of Convertibility', Financial Times,
1 September 1947.

'A.B.C. of the Crisis', Spectator, 5 September 1947 (article), 19 September (letter).

'A.B.C. of Recovery', Spectator, 3 October 1947 (article).

'Use of the Loans', The Times, 30 October 1947 (letter),
3 November 1947.

'Are These Hardships Necessary?', Listener, 27 November 1947 (letter).

'Where Are Missing Millions?', Continental Daily Mail,
November?, December? 1947 (letter).

'Out Capital Outlay is not yet Cut According to Our Cloth', Daily Telegraph, 5 December 1947 (article).

'Capital Cuts', Spectator, 12 December 1947.

'Our Most Pressing Problem', Everybody's, 20 December 1947.

'Funds for Egypt', The Times, 8 January 1948 (letter).

'Capital Levy Unjust and Useless', Evening Standard, 4 February 1948.

'John Maynard Keynes and Power of Reason', Listener, 5 February 1948.

'Ceiling on Prices and Profits will not End Inflation',
Daily Telegraph, 16 February 1948.

'Planning at Home & Abroad', Time & Tide, 28 February 1948, and 6 March, 1948.

- 5
- 'Tax Incentives and Export Trade' (letter), The Accountant,
20 March 1948.
- 'What is this "Planning"?' , Everybody's, 2 April 1948.
- 'Tax Changes in Budget', The Times, 8 April 1948 (letter).
- 'Consumption Up or Down', Economist (letter), 24 April 1948,
8 May 1948, 22 May 1948.
- 'Britain's Planners Try to Ignore Economic Force', Recorder,
15 May 1948.
- 'Pour Faire Europe: Monnaie d'Abord!', La Vie Francaise,
28 May 1948.
- 'Planning and our Economic Plight', Industry, July 1948.
- 'Dear Money or Income Tax Adjustment?', Financial Times,
6 July 1948.
- 'Marshall Aid', Sunday Times, 11 July 1948.
- 'Restoring a Balance', Financial Times (letter), 5 August 1948.
- 'Capital for Industry', The Times. Joint letter with Graham Hutton, 29 September 1948.
- 'The Government's "Over-ambitious plan"', The Listener,
13 January 1949.
- 'The Case for a Free Trade Area', The Listener, 27 January 1949.
- 'Falling Trend of Prices: Risks State Bulk Purchasing Runs'.
(letter), Daily Telegraph, 11 February 1949.
- 'When Britain Faces a Slump', Yorkshire Post, 21 February 1949.
- 'Western Union - Its Economic Aspects', Purchasing Journal,
May 1949.
- 'The Dollar Gap. External Sterling Liabilities', (letter),
The Times, 12 July 1949.
- 'Sterling Balances', (letter), The Times, 6 August 1949.

'The Sterling Balances. Need for Definitive Settlement', (letter), The Times, 16 August 1949.

'Work, Wealth and Devaluation', Daily Mail, 13 October 1949.

'Devalued', Daily Mail, 17 October 1949.

'Economic Policy in War by Hancock and Gowing',
Times Literary Supplement*, Review (anonymous),
18 November 1949.

'The Wider Dollar Problem.

1. Why Sterling is a Drug on the Market.
2. Need for a Policy to make Sterling Convertible',
Financial Times, 1 and 2 February 1950.

'The Budget's Wider Implications. No contribution to the Central Problem of the Balance of Payments',
Financial Times, 20 April 1950.

'Britain's Fair Weather Budget', Barron's National Business and Financial Weekly, 24 April 1950.

'A Danger to Sterling. Effect of U.K. Proposals in the European Payments Union', Financial Times, 30 May 1950.

'European Payments. Sterling Option', Financial Times, (letter), 3 June 1950.

'E.P.U. and the Sterling Option', Financial Times (letter),
12 June 1950.

'Financing Defence', The Financial Times, 2 articles,
2 and 3 August 1950.

'Economic Writing'. 3 column article in which comments on Meade, Ohlin, Neumann and Morgenstern, Samuelson, Hicks
and Little, Times Literary Supplement (anonymous),
25 August 1950.

* Sir Roy Harrod reviewed fairly frequently in the Times Literary Supplement for a number of years after this. Reviews covered Pigou, D.H. Robertson and other well-known economists.

- 'Defence Expenditure and Exports', Financial Times,
4 October 1950.
- 'Dollar Problem and Devaluation', The Argus,
26 October 1950.
- 'Restrictions on Imports. Recent Improvement in Dollar
Balance', The Times (letter), 4 November 1950.
- 'How to Bring the Prices Down', Daily Mail, 6 November 1950.
- 'Dollar Imports. Benefits of Eased Restrictions', The Times (letter), 10 November 1950.
- 'Our Financial Position Now', Financial Times, 30 November 1950.
- 'Notes on the Way', Time and Tide, 9 December 1950,
16 December 1950.
- 'The Real Choice', The Financial Times, 22 February 1951.
- 'The Insufficiency of Monetary and Fiscal Controls', Commercial and Financial Chronicle (New York), 19 April 1951
- 'The Revaluation of Sterling', The Financial Times,
25 April 1951.
- 'The Budget' (letter), The Economist, 28 April 1951.
- 'What is the pound worth in dollars?', (letter),
The Financial Times, 3 May 1951.
- 'Proposal for Free Market in Sterling', The Financial Times,
9 May 1951.
- 'Sterling' (letter), The News Chronicle, 15 May 1951.
- 'Mr. Harrod replies to his critics', (letter), The Financial Times, 22 May 1951.
- '1951-52 - Year of Inflation?', The Financial Times,
31 May 1951.

- 'Revaluing Sterling' (letter), The Economist, 2 June 1951.
- Review of Essays in Persuasion and Essays in Biography, by J. M. Keynes, The Spectator, 22 June 1951.
- 'America Tackles Defence', The Listener, 5 July 1951.
- 'Only Drastic Action can Stop the Rise in Prices', Daily Despatch, 10 July 1951.
- 'The New Trade Crisis', The Financial Times, 25 July 1951.
- 'Sterling Revaluation' (letter), The Financial Times, 31 July 1951.
- 'Should the Pound be Revalued?', The Listener, 9 August 1951.
- 'Should the Pound be Revalued?', (letter), The Listener, 23 August 1951.
- 'The Dollar Price of Gold', The Financial Times, 12 September, 1951.
- 'Freedom and the New Society', The Listener, 27 September and 4 October 1951.
- 'The Renewal of the Dollar Gap', The Financial Times, 5 October, 1951.
- 'A Tory Chancellor's Chance', The Spectator, 5 October 1951.
- 'Inflation! A Primer for Today', New York Times Magazine, 7 October 1951.
- 'Freedom and the New Society' (letter), The Listener, 25 October 1951.
- 'Prospects in Economics', Time and Tide, 3 November 1951.
- 'Savings and Inflation', The Policy Holder, 7 November 1951.
- 'Food Subsidies' Part in the U.K. Economy', The Financial Times, 12 November 1951.

- 'The Brass Tacks of Disinflation', The Financial Times, 12 December 1951.
- 'Integrity of the Sterling Area', The New Commonwealth, 7 January 1952.
- 'On to Solvency', The Financial Times, 2 February 1952.
- 'Review of The Balance of Payments by Prof. L. Robbins, Time and Tide, 2 February 1952.
- 'A Surgical Operation on the Sterling Balances' (letter), The Statist, 8 March 1952.
- 'The Budget and Inflation', The Financial Times, 13 March 1952.
- 'Sterling Area Problems and Sterling Convertibility', The New Commonwealth, 31 March 1952.
- 'Convertibility of Sterling' (letter), The Times, 8 April 1952.
- 'Planning Delicately', The Financial Times, 24 May 1952.
- 'Let us take the Tax Brake Off Ambition', News Chronicle, 26 June 1952.
- 'Portraits from Memory' (Lord Russell on Keynes) (letter), The Listener, 31 July 1952.
- 'Sterling Convertibility and the European Payments Union', The Financial Times, 23 February 1953.
- 'The Economy Needs a Fillip', The Financial Times, 10 April 1953.
- 'A Lower Bank Rate?', The Financial Times, 7 May 1953.
- Review of Malthusian Population Theory by G.F. McCleary, Time and Tide, 30 May 1953.
- 'Limited Convertibility', The Financial Times, 22 July 1953.

- 'Third Market Dollars', The Financial Times, 15 September 1953.
- 'I Killed Keynes' (letter), The Daily Telegraph,
17 September 1953.
- 'What a Lower Bank Rate Means', The Financial Times,
18 September 1953.
- 'Straws in the Wind', The Financial Times, 10 November 1953.
- 'Interim Policy', Bank of Tokyo Review, December 1953.
- Review of The Strachey Family by Richard Sanders,
Time and Tide, 2 January 1954.
- 'A Survey of the Government's Monetary Policy', The Liverpool Post, 8 January 1954.
- 'Notes on the Way', Time and Tide, 9 and 16 January 1954.
- 'Sterling after Sydney', The Financial Times,
27 January 1954.
- 'Productivity Budget?', The Financial Times, 15 March 1954.
- 'How Britain should meet an American Recession', The Daily Telegraph, 2 April 1954.
- 'A Wise Budget', The Financial Times, 9 April 1954.
- 'Horizontal Weather' (letters on 'Voluntary' depreciation allowances), The Economist, 3 and 24 April 1954.
- Review of Life of John Stuart Mill by M. St. John Packe,
Time and Tide, 17 April 1954.
- Letter on above. Time and Tide, 1 May 1954.
- 'Anxieties over European Payments Union', The Financial Times,
17 May 1954.
- 'Convertibility', Bank of Tokyo Review, 1 July 1954.
- 'Towards a New Pattern', The Financial Times, 5 July 1954.
- 'Britain's Faster Pace in Industrial Output', Sydney Morning Herald, 21 September 1954.

- 'Convertibility Problems', The Financial Times, 27 September, 1954.
- 'A Drift towards Inflation', The Financial Times, 30 November 1954.
- 'Forecasting the Economic Future of America', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 January 1955.
- 'Trade and Tariffs', The New Republic, 3 January 1955.
- 'A Future for G.A.T.T.', The Financial Times, 13 January 1955.
- 'Economic Retrospect for 1954', The Liverpool Post, 19 January, 1955.
- 'The United States and the United Kingdom', The Financial Times, 27 January 1955.
- 'Current Situation', Bank of Tokyo Review, February 1955.
- 'Budget of Moderation', The Financial Times, April 1955.
- Review of Economics and Action by P. Mendès-France, The Sunday Times, 12 June 1955.
- Review of Report of Royal Commission on Taxation of Profits and Income, Time and Tide, 18 June 1955.
- 'Investment and Delivery', The Financial Times, 24 June 1955.
- 'Prospects for Sterling Convertibility', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 13 July 1955.
- 'Strengthened Sterling', Bank of Tokyo Review, 18 July 1955.
- 'Foreign Exchange Policy', The Financial Times, 19 July 1955.
- 'A Tunnel under Oxford?', The Listener, 28 July 1955.
- 'Town, Gown and the Traffic Problem', The Oxford Mail, 8 August 1955.
- 'Not a Crisis', The Financial Times, 11 August 1955.
- 'The Convertibility of Sterling' (letter), The Times, 25 August 1955.
- 'Britain's Great Boom - Hopes and Dangers for the Years Ahead',

- 'When will the Boom End?', The Financial Times,
10 September 1955.
- 'The Second Budget', The Financial Times, 28 October 1955.
- Review of The Great Crash by J.K. Galbraith, The Sunday Times,
30 October 1955.
- Replies of Questions, Nihon Keizai Shimbun, November 1955.
- 'Why Not Tunnel?', The Gherwell (Oxford), 15 November 1955.
- 'Continuing Boom', The Financial Times, 2 December 1955.
- 'World Wide Investment Boom', Bank of Tokyo Review,
January 1956.
- 'Fundamentals of Policy', The Financial Times, 11 January 1956.
- '1955 Squeeze was not enough', The Liverpool Post,
18 January 1956.
- 'The Chancellor's Measures', The Financial Times,
25 February 1956.
- 'Pushing Consumer Durables too hard', The Financial Times,
28 March 1956.
- 'Budget and State Industries', The Financial Times,
21 April 1956.
- Review of The Problem of Bigness by P. Sargent Florence,
The Spectator, 4 May 1956.
- Review of Treasury Control by S. H. Beer, The Sunday Times,
3 June 1956.
- 'Where we stand', The Financial Times, 14 June 1956.
- 'Continuing Boom', Bank of Tokyo Review, July 1956.
- 'Inflation' (dialogue with Mr. Graham Hutton), Picture Post,
21 July 1956.
- 'The Investment Boom', Time and Tide, 21 July 1956.
- 'The Wages Question', Time and Tide, 28 July 1956.

- 'New Thinking this Autumn', The Financial Times,
14 September 1956.
- 'Oxford Road Plans' (letter), The Times, 27 September 1956.
- 'Christ Church Meadow' (letter), The Times, 18 October 1956.
- 'Should Bank Rate be Cut?', The Financial Times,
30 October 1956.
- 'Britain has finally brought its inflation under control',
Sydney Morning Herald, 30 October 1956.
- 'Landings in Egypt' (letter), The Times, 6 November 1956.
- 'Borrowing' (letter), The Financial Times, 6 November 1956.
- 'Credit Relaxation due now', The Financial Times,
13 December 1956.
- 'Review of Half Year', Bank of Tokyo Review, January 1957.
- 'Warning Against Delay', The Financial Times, 10 January 1957.
- 'Economic Priority steps needed for 1957', The Liverpool Post,
22 January 1957.
- 'European Common Market', The Queen, 5 February 1957.
- 'Monopolistic Practices Charged' (letter), New York Times,
20 February 1957.
- 'Future of Interest Rates', The Financial Times, 1 March 1957.
- 'The Economy after the Budget', The Financial Times,
11 April 1957.
- 'Review of European Common Market', World's Press News
(Westminster Chamber of Commerce), 19 April 1957.
- 'Reversible Cost', Time and Tide, 8 June 1957.
- 'Riding the Cycle', Time and Tide, 15 June 1957.
- 'Brakes Off!', The Investors' Chronicle, 28 June 1957.

- 'Review of Half Year', Bank of Tokyo Review, July 1957.
- Obituary Notice of Lord Cherwell, The Oxford Mail, 3 July 1957.
- 'Two Types of Inflation', The Financial Times, 7 and 8 July 1957.
- 'Two Types of Inflation' (letter), The Financial Times, 31 July 1957.
- 'Demand-Induced Recession' (letter), The Bankers' Magazine, 16 August 1957.
- '7 Per Cent', The Financial Times, 21 September 1957.
- 'Review of The World Dollar Problem by Sir Donald MacDougall, The Listener, 26 September 1957.
- 'Implications of the Fall in Machine Tool Orders', The Financial Times, 6 November 1957.
- 'The Quantity of Money' (letter), The Financial Times, 13 November 1957.
- 'Expansion of Production' (letter), The Financial Times, 15 November 1957.
- Replies to Questions, Nihon Keizai Shimbun, December 1957.
- 'Rates of Pay should be Levelled Off', The Western Mail, 16 December 1957 and The Yorkshire Evening Press, 19 December 1957.
- 'Review of Half Year', Bank of Tokyo Review, January 1958.
- 'Prospect for 1958', The Financial Times, 4 January 1958.
- 'My Advice to British Government Now', The Liverpool Post, 21 January 1958.
- 'Speed and the Pound' (letter), The Daily Telegraph, February 1958.
- 'Review of Prosperity through Competition by L. Erhard, Books of the Month, March 1958.

- 'Sterling and World Recession', The Financial Times,
14 March 1958.
- 'Commodity Reserves' (letter), The Economist, 15 March 1958.
- 'The British Economy' (letter), The Economist, 29 March 1958.
- 'Confidence in Sterling' (letter), The Times, 20 May 1958.
- 'What Britain can do', The Financial Times, 20 June 1958.
- 'Confidence in Sterling' (letter), The Times, 20 June 1958.
- 'Period of Hesitation', Bank of Tokyo Review, July 1958.
- 'The Financial Outlook', The Accountant, 19 July 1958.
- 'The Commonwealth Conference', The Financial Times,
28 July 1958.
- 'The Summer of 1958' (2 articles), Nihon Keizai Shimbun,
August 1958.
- 'Brendan Bracken' (letter), The Daily Telegraph, 14 August 1958.
- 'Outlook - An Alternative View', The Financial Times,
26 August 1958.
- 'Below the Line' (letter), The Financial Times,
2 September 1958.
- 'Americans in Britain' (letter), The Times, 13 September 1958.
- 'Time for Expansion', Business Bulletin (Brunnings Ltd.),
22 September 1958.
- 'Divergent Trends' (2 articles), (i) U.S. (ii) U.K.,
Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 October 1958.
- 'Montreal and New Delhi', The Financial Times, 17 October 1958.
- 'Outlook Uncertain', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 3 November 1958.
- Obituary Notice of Alic Halford Smith, The Oxford Magazine,
6 November 1958.

- 'Has Enough yet Been Done?', The Financial Times,
21 November 1958.
- 'Europe Must Act to Revive World Trade', Euromarket,
December 1958.
- 2 articles, Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 December 1958.
- 'World Trade is Bearish', Business Bulletin (Brunnings Ltd.),
22 December 1958.
- 'Labour's Views on Convertibility', (letter), The Times,
31 December 1958.
- 'World Revival still Uncertain', Bank of Tokyo Review,
January 1959.
- 'Britain Needs an Upsurge in Consumption in 1959',
The Financial Times, 1 January 1959.
- 'Question of Aid for Underdeveloped Countries',
Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 January 1959.
- 'Expansion Must be the Policy', The Liverpool Post,
20 January 1959.
- 'Long-Term Rate of Interest', The Financial Times,
28 January 1959.
- 2 Articles, Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 February 1959.
- 'A Free Pound and the Future', The Listener,
12 February 1959.
- 'Prospects Uncertain', Business Bulletin (Brunnings Ltd.),
2 March 1959.
- 'Flexible Monetary Policy Needed', (letter), The Financial Times,
10 March 1959.
- 'La Funzione dell'Oro', Mercurio, 15 March 1959.
- 'The Kind of Budget I Would Like to See', The Financial Times,
23 March 1959.

- 2 Articles: (i) 'World Situation'; (ii) 'British Prospects',
Nihon Keizai Shimbun, April 1959.
- 'Reflexions on the Budget', The Financial Times,
10 April 1959.
- 'These are the Dangers if Labour Wins', Business Bulletin (Brunnings Ltd.), 2 May 1959.
- 'Economic Agenda for the Tories', Business Bulletin (Brunnings Ltd.)
9 May 1959.
- 'Should Equities Yield less Than Gilts?', The Financial Times,
22 May 1959.
- 'Should Equities Yield less than Gilts?' (letter), The Financial Times, 27 May 1959.
- 2 Articles: (i) 'Recovery'; (ii) 'The Monetary Mechanism',
Nihon Keizai Shimbun, June 1959.
- 'Moving Forward', Bank of Tokyo Review, July 1959.
- 'America's Payments Problem', The Financial Times,
30 July 1959.
- 2 Articles: (i) 'Pattern of World Trade'; (ii) 'Course of Recovery', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, August 1959.
- 'What I think of the Radcliffe Report', The Financial Times,
21 August 1959.
- 'Commonwealth Potential', The Investors' Chronicle,
28 August 1959.
- 'Why I shall Vote Conservative', The Observer, 20 September 1959.
- Review of The Failure of the 'New Economics', by H. Hazlitt,
The Financial Times, 21 September 1959.
- 2 Articles: (i) 'World Economic Situation'; (ii) 'Radcliffe
Report', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, October 1959.
- 'An Expansionist Policy for Britain lies Ahead', The Liverpool Post and The Birmingham Post, 2 October 1959.
- 'Are Yields Too High?', The Financial Times, 31 October 1959.

- 'Prospects for Britain's Economy', The Liverpool Post and The Birmingham Post, 3 November 1959.
- Review of The Spare Chancellor: the Life of Walter Bagehot, by A. Buchan, The Listener, 5 November 1959.
- 'The United States in Deficit' (letter), The Times, 23 November 1959.
- 2 Articles: (i) 'Germany'; (ii) 'The United States', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, December 1959.
- 'Now it is the turn of the Europeans', The Liverpool Post, 1 December 1959 and The Birmingham Post, 8 December 1959.
- 'Changing Structure of World Economy', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 15 December 1959.
- 'Six Months Retrospect', Bank of Tokyo Review, 1 January 1960.
- 'Britain in the early phase of a trade cycle recovery', The Financial Times, 1 January 1960.
- 'The Suicide Bombers?' (letter), The Economist, 2 January 1960.
- 'New Demands in New Tasks for Britain' (letter), The Times, 7 January 1960.
- 'De Profundis' (letter), The Sunday Times, 10 January 1960.
- 'The Truth about Incomes Policy', The Birmingham Post, 11 January 1960.
- 'Shorter Hours' (letter), The Times, 15 January 1960.
- 'Our Substantial Recovery to Continue', Liverpool Post, 20 January 1960.
- 'Rise of Bank Rate', The Financial Times, 28 January 1960.
- Review of Wall Street by Martin Meyer, The Listener, 28 January 1960.

2 Articles: (i) 'British Bank Rate'; (ii) 'The American Deficit', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 30 January 1960.

'Il Tempo Libero Diverra un Problema', Mercurio,
15 February 1960.

'Still time for Expansion', The Financial Times,
24 February 1960.

'Financing State Industries' (letter), Manchester Guardian,
2 March 1960.

'Too Soon to Start Increasing Taxes', The Birmingham Post,
31 March 1960.

2 Articles: (i) 'World Liquidity'; (ii) 'Two Views in Britain', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 April 1960.

'Path of Expansion', The Financial Times, 6 April 1960.

'Wealth of Nations', review of Stages of Economic Growth
by W.W. Rostow, The Financial Times, 12 April 1960.

'An Economic Re-Appraisal Needed', The Financial Times,
13 May 1960.

2 Articles: (i) 'The World Moving Forward'; (ii) 'Special Deposits in Britain', Nihon Keizai Shimbun,
June 1960.

'Una politica atlantica di sviluppo economico', Mercurio,
June 1960.

'A New Look at the Trade Balance', The Financial Times,
22 June 1960.

'World Revival Falters', Bank of Tokyo Review,
July 1960.

'Import Liberalization' (letter), The Financial Times,
4 July 1960.

'Government's Economic Policy', The Glasgow Herald,
6 July 1960.

'On Inflation' (letter), The Sunday Times, 24 July 1960.

'Restraint but Not Too Much', Huddersfield Examiner,
27 July 1960, and Birmingham Post, 13 August 1960.

2 Articles: (i) 'Restraining Measures in Britain',
(ii) 'Interest Rates', Nihon Keizai Shimbun,
1 August 1960.

'Growth as Objective', The Financial Times, 24 August 1960.

'Is World Recession Impending?', The Birmingham Post,
5 September 1960.

'Need to Revitalize our Economy', The Birmingham Post,
5 October 1960.

2 Articles: (i) 'World Trends'; (ii) 'The British Dilemma',
Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 6 October 1960.

'British Trade Balance and Economic Policy', Sydney Morning
Herald, October 1960.

'The Prospects for Britain in Output and Trade',
Weekly Post, 15 October 1960.

Roger Cohn (an Appreciation), The Times, 20 October 1960.

'Reasons behind the Gold Flurry', The Birmingham Post,
31 October 1960, Huddersfield Examiner, 2 November 1960,
Manchester Evening News, 7 November 1960,
Liverpool Daily Post, 9 November 1960.

'The Question of Imports. The Ford Affair' (letter),
The Financial Times, 18 November 1960.

'Isak Dinesen' (letter), The Sunday Times, 20 November 1960.

Review of The Liberal Hour by J.K. Galbraith, The Listener,
24 November 1970.

'Prospects for 1961', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 December 1960.

'Glad To-day, Sad To-morrow', The Birmingham Post, 1 December 1960.
'Ford Deal - we need positive policy for such cases',
Huddersfield Examiner, 1 December 1960 (same article).

'Saving the Dollar', The Financial Times, 7 December 1960.

- 'A.D. Lindsay and the Keele Experiment' (review), The Listener, 22 December 1960.
- 'Saving the Dollar' (letter), The Financial Times, 29 December 1960.
- 'Retrospect and Prospect', Glasgow Herald Trade Review, January 1961.
- 'July-December 1960', Bank of Tokyo Review, 1 January 1961.
- 'The Need for a Proper Policy of Economic Growth', The Financial Times, 2 January 1961.
- 'Value of Gold' (letter), The Times, 4 January 1961.
- 'A New University' (letter), The Listener, 12 January 1961.
- 'We Need a Policy of Renewed Growth', The Liverpool Post, 25 January 1961.
- 'Import Restriction Needed', The Financial Times, 15 March 1961.
- 'Do We Need Import Restrictions?', (letter), The Financial Times, 23 March 1961.
- 2 Articles: (i) 'World Liquidity'; (ii) 'The D Mark', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 April 1961.
- 'On Capital Account' (letter), The Times, 6 April 1961 and 17 April 1961.
- 'The Budget Surplus and After', The Financial Times, 23 May 1961.
- 'Alternative Methods for Increasing International Liquidity', Elec., June 1961.
- 'Who'll Say Boo to a GATT', News of the World, 25 June 1961.
- 'Prosperity without Inflation', The English Digest, July 1961 (abbreviated from Director).
- 'A Drive Needed at Home', News of the World, 23 July 1961.
- 'The Chancellor's Measures', Financial Times, 27 July 1961.
- 'If I were in Selwyn's Shoes', The News of the World, 30 July 1961.

2 Articles: (i) 'Uncertain Outlook'; (ii) 'Britain's Embarrassments', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, August 1961.

'Stagnant Policies', review of The Stagnant Society by M. Shanks, The Financial Times, 4 September 1961.

'The Heyworth Report', The Financial Times, September 1961.
2 Articles: (i) 'The I.M.F. and World Liquidity'; (ii) 'Cross Purposes in Britain', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 October 1961.

'The Economic Outlook', The Cotton Board Conference, 22 October 1961.

'Balance of Payments Bogy', The Financial Times, 27 November 1961.

'Reply to Questionnaire', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, November 1961.

2 Articles: (i) 'The Target Growth for O.E.C.D. Countries'; (ii) 'Hesitation in Recovery', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 December 1961.

'The Case Against Devaluation', The Statist, 8 December 1961.

'Britain's Free World', The Times, 2 January 1962.

'Sterling Convertibility' (letter), The Statist, 19 January 1962.

'The Six Imports too High?' (letter), The Financial Times, 22 January 1962.

'Why the Economy must not be held down too long', Liverpool Daily Post, 24 January 1962.

2 Articles: (i) 'Karachi'; (ii) 'Prospects not bright', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, February 1962.

'Growth and the Balance of Payments', The Financial Times, 2 February 1962.

'The "Market" and the Outside World' (letter), The Spectator, 9 February 1962.

- 'An Anathema from Christ Church and the Road in the Meadow', The Daily Telegraph (letter), 21 March 1962.
- 'Should we have a Budget Surplus?', The Financial Times, 30 March 1962.
- 2 Articles: (i) 'A Mature Economy'; (ii) 'British Difficulties', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 April 1962.
- 'An O.E.C.D. Report' (letter), The Financial Times, 25 April 1962.
- 'Danger of Making Poor Countries Poorer', The Observer, 20 May 1962.
- 'The Challenge of To-day', The Financial Times, 28 May 1962.
- 'Part of Facing the Key Currency Problem', European Review, May-June 1962.
- 2 Articles: (i) 'The Liquidity Question Again'; (ii) 'Britain's Growth Target', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 June 1962.
- 'Wall Street and Gold', The Financial Times, 22 June 1962.
- 'Oro finito per i pagamenti internazionali?'; Mercurio, July 1962.
- 'International Liquidity and Wall Street', Bank of Tokyo Review, July 1962.
- 'Price of Gold' (letter), The Financial Times, 2 July 1962.
- 'Beyond the Changes. Economic Policy Discredited', (letter) The Times, 24 July 1962.
- 'Oscar Wilde' (letter), Times Literary Supplement, 27 July 1962.
- 'Further Notes on the Gold Question', Max Pollak and Freemantle (S.A.), 8 August 1962.
- 2 Articles: (i) 'International Monetary Fund'; (ii) 'The Common Market', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, October 1962.
- 'If we don't get in', Time and Tide, 11 October 1962.
- 'Much more than fifty-fifty' (letter), The Economist,

- 'Case Studies in European Union' by Meade, Liesner and Wells.
(review), The Listener, 1 November 1962.
- 'Acid Test Ahead in Britain', Sydney Morning Herald,
5 November 1962.
- 2 Articles: (i) 'Targets too low'; (ii) 'The British Dilemma',
Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 December 1962.
- 'Will there be recovery?', Bank of Tokyo Review, 1 January 1963.
- 'The Nation must not suffer these constant crises',
The Liverpool Post, 23 January 1963.
- 2 Articles: (i) 'Britain and the Common Market';
(ii) 'A New British Policy', Nihon Keizai Shimbun,
1 February 1963.
- 'Obstacles to Growth' (letter), The Times, 21 February 1963.
- 'Shooting the Economic Rapids', The Observer, 3 March 1963.
- 'Obstacles to Growth' (letter), The Times, 4 March 1963.
- 2 Articles: (i) 'The U.K. After Brussels Breakdown';
(ii) 'European Co-operation for Growth',
Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 April 1963.
- 'Public Service: Assessment of Value to Users' (letter),
The Times, 16 April 1963.
- 'Landscapes with Figures', review of The World Bank
by James Morris, The Listener, 30 May 1963.
- 2 Articles: (i) 'The Kennedy Round'; (ii) 'Expansionist Budget in Britain', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 June 1963.
- 'A Harrod Plan for the I.M.F.', The Statist, 26 July 1963.
- 2 Articles: (i) 'How to Use the U.S. Deficit'; (ii) 'The U.S.
Deficit and World Prospects', Nihon Keizai Shimbun,
1 August 1963.
- 'To Have and Dare Not', review of After Imperialism by M. Barrett
Brown, The Observer, 1 August 1963.
- 2 Articles: (i) 'Towards a Critical Situation'; (ii) 'Meeting of the International Monetary Fund', Nihon Keizai Shimbun,

- 2 Articles: (i) 'Interest Rates'; (ii) 'The General Situation', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 December 1963.
- 'Public Spending and Tax Cuts' (letter), The Financial Times, 24 December 1963.
- 'Helping the Developing Countries', Commerce (Bombay), December 1963.
- 'Prospect for the European Economy in 1964', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 January 1964.
- 'Reconciling Domestic Growth with Balance of Payments', The Liverpool Post, 22 January 1964.
- 2 Articles: (i) 'Opinions on World Liquidity'; (ii) 'A Plan for Reforming the I.M.F.', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 February 1964.
- 2 Articles: (i) 'British Bank Rate'; (ii) 'International Money and Trade Questions', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 April 1964.
- 2 Articles: (i) 'Easing of the U.S. Deficit'; (ii) 'Looking Further Forward', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 June 1964.
- 'Agenda for the I.M.F. Conference', Bank of Tokyo Review, 1 July 1964.
- 'Plan to Increase International Monetary Liquidity', Aussenwirtschaft, July 1964.
- 2 Articles: (i) 'The U.K. and the U.S.'; (ii) 'The International Scene', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 August 1964.
- 'How to Exercise Restraint', review of Rebirth of Britain. Symposium of Essays, The Sunday Telegraph, 6 September 1964.
- 'Increasing International Reserves', The Daily Telegraph, 8 September 1964.
- 2 Articles: (i) 'The Two Elections'; (ii) 'After Tokyo', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 October 1964.
- 'An Independent Assessment', The Sun, 27 October 1964.
- 'Surveillance' (letter). The Financial Times, 6 November 1964.

- 'International Liquidity', Times Review of Industry,
December 1964.
- 'A Flurried Season', Bank of Tokyo Review, 1 January 1965.
- 'Piani Orientativi Anche per la Gran Bretagna', Mercurio,
1 January 1965.
- 'Economy in Perspective', The Sunday Telegraph,
3 January 1965.
- 'Into Calmer Waters', The Liverpool Post, 20 January 1965.
- 'Franks Commission Memo', Oxford Magazine, 21 January 1965.
- 2 Articles: (i) 'The British Position'; (ii) 'The World Position',
Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 February 1965.
- 'Beyond Our Means' (letter), The Times, 11 February 1965.
- 'Plan to Increase International Monetary Liquidity',
Hearings before the Joint Economic Committee of Congress,
25 February 1965.
- 'Submission to Franks Commission', Oxford Magazine,
Hilary Term 1965.
- 'Maurice Hastings', The Times, 2 March 1965.
- 2 Articles: (i) 'Sterling and the British Budget';
(ii) 'International Liquidity Again', Nihon Keizai Shimbun,
24 April 1965.
- 'Under New Management', The Listener, 13 May 1965.
- 'World Outlook still Unsettled', Bank of Tokyo Review,
1 July 1965.
- 'The Economic Predicament' (letter), The Times,
20 July 1965.
- 'International Money', The Liverpool Post, 23 July 1965.
- 'Economic Predicament', The Times, 24 July 1965.
- 'Dividends' (letter), Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 August 1965.
- 'Economic Predicament' (letter), The Times, 5 August 1965.
- 'Quanto Valgono i Giudizi di Valore?', Mercurio, September 1965.

- Review of The City in the World Economy by W.M.Clark,
Times Literary Supplement, 9 September 1965.
- 2 Articles: (i) 'The Ossola Report'; (ii) 'More Credit for the U.K.', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 October 1965.
- 'Britain's Rate of Growth will beat that of Europe',
Sydney Morning Herald, 25 October 1965.
- 'International Liquidity', Nihon Keizai Shimbun,
1 December 1965.
- 'Aid to the Less Developed Countries', Commerce (Bombay),
December 1965.
- '1965 - A Disappointing Economic Year', The Liverpool Post,
19 January 1966.
- 'A Year of Labour Rule in the U.K.', Nihon Keizai Shimbun,
1 February 1966.
- 'Tough Measures' (letter), The Times, 29 March 1966 and
The Liverpool Post, 30 March 1966.
- 'Tough Measures' (letter), The Times, 13 April 1966.
- 'The Economic Scene', Institute of Actuaries,
19 and 20 April 1966.
- 'After the Election', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 April 1966.
- 'Hesitant Capitalism', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 June 1966.
- 'A Way Out of Economic Danger' (letter), The Times,
5 July 1966.
- 'Deflation', The Financial Times, 19 July 1966.
- 'Horror Story', review article of H. Brandon's In the Red. The Struggle for Sterling 1964-6, The Sunday Times,
21 July 1966.
- 'A Way Out of Economic Danger' (letter), The Times,
2 August 1966.
- 'The Incomes Policy can succeed', The Listener

- 'To Reflate and Control' (letter), The Financial Times,
25 October 1966.
- 'How to End the Squeeze', The Sunday Telegraph,
30 October 1966.
- 'Devaluation of the Rupee' (replies to questions),
The Illustrated Weekly of India, 2 October 1966.
- 'Further Development of British Policy', Nihon Keizai Shimbun,
1 December 1966.
- 'The Freeze and the Squeeze', The Listener, 15 December 1966.
- 'I.M.F., the Dollar and Sterling', Bank of Tokyo Review,
1 January 1967.
- 'The Problem of International Liquidity', Mercurio,
January 1967.
- 'The Economy in 1967 and later', The Liverpool Post,
18 January 1967.
- Jointly signed letter entitled 'Britain and the Treaty of Rome',
The Times, 20th January 1967.
- 'Contradictions and Frustrations', Nihon Keizai Shimbun,
1 February 1967.
- 'Policy for the Thaw', The Sunday Times, 12 February 1967.
- 'The British Budget', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 April (actually 12 April), 1967.
- 'Our Loss, America's Gain', review of Age of Keynes by Lekachman, The Sunday Times, 30 April 1967.
- 'Note of Government Expenditure' (letter), The Financial Times,
1 May 1967.
- 'Government Spending' (letter), The Financial Times,
5 May 1967.
- 'U.K. and Common Market', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 June 1967.
- 'State of the nation. They have taken the go out of stop-go',
The Sunday Telegraph, 25 June 1967.

- 'Towards Rio', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 August 1967.
- 'The Dresden Raids' (letter), The Times, 11 November 1967.
- 'Terrible price we are paying for a 1955 blunder',
Manchester Evening News, 21 November 1967.
- 'We must stand up to foreign advice' (letter),
The Evening Standard, 12 December 1967.
- 'Austerity no remedy for Britain' (letter), The Times,
21 December 1967.
- 'Future of sterling as a reserve currency', Capital
(Calcutta), December 1967.
- 'Wage freeze goes - but cut this tax', News of the World,
31 December 1967.
- 'British Economy', Sydney Morning Herald, December 1967.
- 'World's Monetary System', Bank of Tokyo Review, January 1968.
- 'Hot-lunch' (letter), The Times, 3 January 1968.
- 'What is the real cause of our troubles?', The Liverpool Daily
Post, 17 January 1968.
- 'Portrait of Brian Howard' (contribution), The Listener,
18 January 1968.
- 'President Johnson's Proposals', Nihon Keizai Shimbun,
1 February 1968.
- 'Two Tier Gold', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 23 March (usually 1 April), 1968.
- 'A Wider Scheme' (letter), The Times, 3 May 1968.
- 'Devaluation Hopes, Fears and Further Remedies', The Sunday
Telegraph, 19 May 1968.
- 'Continuing Problems', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 June 1968.
- 'Unsettled International Money', Bank of Tokyo Review,
1 July 1968.
- 'Special Drawing Rights' (answers to questions), Successo,

'Terminate deficits at once' (letter), Time and Tide,
18-24 July 1968.

Review of The World after Keynes by Sir Eric Roll, The Times,
25 July 1968.

'Two Key Indicators', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 August 1968.

'Expansion is the only answer', New Statesman, 9 August 1968.

'Pros and Cons', review of Economics and Economic Policy in Britain 1946-1966, by T.W. Hutchison, Spectator, 13 September 1968.

'I.M.F. Annual Meeting', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 October 1968.

'A Dicey Experiment', The Sunday Telegraph, 13 October 1968.

'Currency Crisis', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 December 1968.

'Continuing Troubles', Bank of Tokyo Review, 1 January 1969.

'Moderate success - but how can we regain confidence?',
The Liverpool Post, January 1969.

'Developments in the U.S. and the U.K.', Nihon Keizai Shimbun,
1 February 1969.

'High Interest Rates', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 February 1969.

'Continuing Problems', Nihon Keizai Shimbun, 1 June 1969.

'Growing out of trouble', The Manchester Guardian, 11 June 1969.

Letter, The Manchester Guardian, 20 June 1969.

'Britain in Debt' (letter), The Times, 25 June 1969.

'Semi-Crisis', Bank of Tokyo Review, 1 July 1969.

Part of obituary on Dean Simpson, The Times, 1 July 1969.

'Harrod's Dichotomy' (letter), The Economist, 18 July 1969.

'How can economists communicate?', Times Literary Supplement,
24 July 1969 (signed article).

'Not a Trader' (letter), The Times, 21 August 1969.