Clermont-Ferrand

- The city is located in the Auvergne region, in the department of Puy-de-Dôme
- It has an airport, so it is possible to reach it by plane
- Downtown is made of volcanic black stones, which are typical of the region
- It is surrounded by mountains and a volcano, which can be visited
Agenda

- Accommodation
- School and classes
- Internship
- Life in Clermont
Accommodation

- Private housing (studios, single rooms, houses in colocation)
- Residences (Studio T1, T2 etc.)
- Moversia: housing agency which has a partnership with the ESC
- Websites:
  - Leboncoin.fr
  - Pap.fr
  - Seloger.com
  - Acheter-louer.fr

CAF: French Government’s contribution for rent and housing expenses. You can expect up to 170€, depending on some factors.

My advices:

- Birth certificate in French
- Bring your documents directly to CAF office instead of upload them on the website, and check if they received them
School and classes

1st semester: Classes and exams at ESC Clermont

- Interdisciplinary seminars
- Specialisation classes ("Business Intelligence" in my case)
- Business Games
- Atelier de professionnalisation
- French classes: 24 hours in total
School and classes

Evaluation

Almost every class requires team-works and projects, which account for the most part of the mark. At the end of the classes there will be the final tests. Therefore most of the evaluations are in itinere.

In December in order to validate the semester, the “Grand Oral” takes place: an oral test in which students are required to develop a critical analysis about a topic chosen randomly and discuss it with some Professors.
Internship

A 6 months internship (in France or abroad) starting in the 2nd semester is required to complete the Academic Year and to obtain the Double Degree.

How:

- JobTeaser and School’s announcements
- « Mardi de l’entreprise »: on Tuesday’s afternoon about every three weeks. Previous registration to the event is required
- Candidate yourself directly on enterprises’ websites
- Other
Life in Clermont

- Possibility to join sport activities organized by students' organization (soccer, basketball etc.)
