This is to announce that on Monday, December 21st, 2009 a research workshop on Macroeconomic dynamics: theory and applications will be held at the University of Pavia.

WORKSHOP THEMES AND AIMS

The workshop will bring together researchers working in the broad field of modern dynamic macroeconomics, to discuss research papers and agendas. It is primarily addressed to Italian researchers and to researchers connected with Italian institutions. Contributions from Ph.D. students in their final year and from junior researchers are particularly welcome.

The main aims of the workshop are:

- to discuss recent research papers in the area of dynamic macroeconomics;
- to present promising young researchers in the area;
- to create networks of researchers working in closely related fields and on similar topics, ideally for future joint research projects and collaborations.

All accepted papers will be discussed by an expert in the field. The final program of the 2008 edition held in Rome at the Economic Outlook and Monetary Policy Department of the Bank of Italy is available at http://www.bancaditalia.it/studiricerche/convegni/atti/Workshop_Macroeconomics.
